

BHCA's Winter Dance glitters with excitement

There is much to celebrate at the Beacon Hill Civic Association 2012 Winter Dance. The occasion marks the 40th year that neighbors have dressed in their finery to dine and dance together.

The elegant affair also kicks off the 90th anniversary of the neighborhood association, which has worked tirelessly over the year to make this neighborhood a very special place to live. The anniversary gemstones - rubies for the 40th and diamonds and emeralds for the 90th - inspired the theme "All that Glitters" for the gala which will be held this year at the Four Seasons Hotel on January 28.

The dance committee, co-chaired by Hope Foley and Kathryn Kuchefski, are adding new sparkle to the dance while keeping many favorite traditions. Guests will be treated to a cocktail hour and appetizers before the dance, and coffee and dessert throughout the evening. Infinity Portrait will be on hand to photograph attendees with a collection of sparkling props. Two female vocalists will appear with the Perry Rossi Orchestra, which once again promises to keep the dance floor hopping all evening long.

Save-the-dates have been distributed throughout the Hill and formal invitations will be mailed in early January. Dance tickets, which include the cocktail party and dessert, are available for $150 per person ($125 for BHCA members.)

Those who contribute $300 or more to the BHCA's annual appeal receive invitations to a pre-dance dinner at the hotel or in neighbors' homes. Please contact the BHCA for more information, to purchase tickets or to contribute to the annual appeal.
