

Last Call for BHCA Winter Dance

Don't miss joining your neighbors this Saturday, January 28, at the 'All that Glitters,' 40th Annual Winter Dance that takes place at the Four Seasons. About 300 Beacon Hillers have already bought tickets for the popular black tie gala, which this year also marks the BHCA's 90th anniversary. The evening begins with dinner and cocktail parties, followed by dessert and dancing to the Perry Rossi Orchestra.

Dance tickets, which include a pre-dance cocktail party with complimentary beer and wine, are available for $150 per person ($125 for BHCA members). Those interested in attending a dinner at the hotel prior to the dance may purchase a dinner and dance ticket for $325 per person ($300 for BHCA members). Tickets may be purchased online at www.bhcivic.org or by calling the Beacon Hill Civic Association at 617-227-1922. Tickets for the dance only are also available at the door. Wednesday, January 25 was the last day dinner and dance tickets could be purchased.

In commemoration of the BHCA's 90th anniversary, Tracey Weiss of the Ruby Door donated a one-of-a-kind necklace she created using amethyst, iolite and garnet beads. The necklace incorporates vintage components mixed with the gemstones, and features a stunning vintage rhinestone pendant. It may be viewed at www.bhcivic.org. The necklace will be given away in a drawing at the dance. Tickets for the drawing, which are $10 each or three for $25, are available at www.bhcivic.org or can be purchased at the Winter Dance. The winner need not be present at the dance.

The Four Seasons Hotel has offered a special overnight room rate of $199 for those attending the Dance. Reservations should be made directly with the hotel.
