welcome

A rustic chic 1940's retro style Italian trattoria, with multiple experiences throughout the restaurant space, including outdoor dining in the "piazza", open kitchen bar seating, large family style tables as well as small platinum beaded tables for intimate dining. Imagine a young Isabella Rossilini meeting her girlfriends for lunch, or Ms. Rossilini bringing her family at night for dinner.

From the moment you walk in the front door, you will feel transcended, not only to Italian culture, but also to an era of time in Italy. You will be greeted with the smells and visuals that are common throughout this European country.

While being escorted into the depths of the restaurant to your table you will notice house made focaccia, jarred sauces, extra virgin olive oil bottles, wines and artisanal imported products throughout the three unique dining experiences offered at IL Maestro. The bar being a more fast-paced lively vibe, the center dining room being a more formal/white tablecloth experience and the family room in the back that is flanked by two farm-house tables for larger festive groups enjoying a family style dinner at the perfect spot

For over 200 years, Beacon Hill, with its cobblestone streets and tucked-away parks has been a thriving residential community. Today, this cozy enclave brimming with Old World charm is surrounded by the very best Boston has to offer.

the 97 Mount Vernon st.

We are in advanced negotiations to lease a unique space for Il Maestro, at 97 Mount Vernon st.

Set on the South Slope of Beacon Hill in an architecturally distinctive building that was once originally a hotel, this space was the house of only 4 restaurants during the last century.

Lala Rokh - high end Persian restaurant – closed its doors in 2018, after 25 years of operations.
